AGED NEGRESS IS BURNED TO DEATH!

LAW ENFORCEMENT STRESSED TO GRAND JURY BY JUDGE W. C. DAVIS

Menace of Dis-regard That People Have Come To Have For Law Enforcement The Foundation of The Charge-Prohibitory Violations Were Center Around Which General Charge Pivoted.

The grand jury for Brazos county convened this morning at nine o'clock at the court house, Judge W. C. Davis of Bryan presiding with J. W. Barron, clerk of the district court and Z. R. McDonald of Franklin, Robertson county, court stenographer, at his desk. The selection of the grand jury had been completed by about 10:30 o'clock and Judge Davis then gave the charge to the jury which was given careful attention by all present in the court room.

MEMBERS OF BRAZOS COUNTY GRAND JURY.

The following is the personnel of the grand jury as selected for this term: Walter Armstrong, foreman; P. L. Barron, I. M. Cook, C. M. Cole, J. D. Martin, W. J. Coulter, C. F. Ayers, John Kasarek, Solan Morgan, M. F. Dansby, C. A. Buchanan and F. T. Cole. There were sixteen names for the grand jury of which twelve names were to be selected but the court was three short of the required twelve, due to absences, and Sheriff L. E. Morehead was instructed to bring in four more men from which three were to be selected. He submitted the names of M. F. Dansby, C. A. Buchanan, F. T. Cole and J. H. Gammons, of whom the first three were drawn from the box and the latter excused. The following men's names were previously on the grand jury list but failed to show up at the required time: J. Q. Lewis of Edge, late on account of bad roads; J. D. Battles, Millican, bad roads; John Thompson, Edge, bad roads; Tom Benbow, bad roads; Henry Kurten of Kurten, illness; J. Walter Smith of Millican, illness; H. C. Seals, Bryan, excused as he is road overseer. He is at work on a half-mile stretch of road just in front of his home on the Hearne road, trying to clear it up to permit travel toward Hearne.

Examples of Tale-Tellers.

"Gentlemen: I do not know that I have any special charge to deliver to you this morning in regard to the duties before you for this term. I have repeatedly read and re-read the oath that you take and I regard it as comprehensive. No grand jury can fully understand and appreciate and obey the oath that you have just taken and do other than what is right." Here Judge Davis read, slowly and distinctly, the oath previously given by J. W. Barron, clerk of the district court, explaining its clauses as he came to them. "It sometimes happens this county and in other counties that, hardly had the words been spoken in the grand jury room than some man on the street had knowledge of it. If you find any witness who has given out and talked about things that have transpired in the grand jury, report him here to this court and we will try to make an example of him."

Regarding Liquor Traffic.

"One of the things I am required to charge you with by law of the state is the rebating by railroads, or giving to the big shipper a better rate than is given the small shipper. I know of no such charges made against railroads through this county. With reference to the pure food act, whether or not druggists or others have offered for sale adulterated foods, I have heard no complaint along that line. With reference to elections, also, I have heard no complaint as to this county. Thank God the day has come when Texas, to a large extent, is having honest ballots and straight counts. "The last thing I am instructed to charge you with is in reference to the prohibitory laws of this state. Violations of that law I have heard complaint and so have you. If there is a community in the world where crimes under that law ought to be investigated it is here in Brazos county and in the City of Bryan where thousands of boys are being sent for the purpose of being educated and are subjected to the influences of the liquor traffic. I charge you as men, as patriots, and as grand-jurors to let no stone go unturned to find out who is responsible for this traffic, if it exists. If you can find out through legitimate evidence and uncover testimony that will warrant an indictment, let it be taken up in court."

Good Citizen Respects Law.

Here Judge Davis dwelt on the fact that the nation, the state of Texas and the local people had all voiced their desire for prohibition. "It must be enforced in the legally constituted courts and I will call upon you men, as men, to investigate this matter. When the father or mother from another county sends their boys here to school they should find here the protecting arm and wholesome influence of men who will see that their boys are protected from these evil influences. Not only those boys who come from a distance but our own boys and their future welfare, and our neighbors boys and their welfare, and in fact, the fabric of our civilization is at stake."

"The devil, in all his history, has never manufactured a drug or a narcotic of more harm to our people than the light vein with which many have come to regard law enforcement, lulling our people to a sense of acquiescence and inactivity, and gaining force among the people. No man who fails to obey or respects a law written on the statute books

NEGRO SLAVE ALMOST CENTURY OLD TELLS OF TEXAS OF LONG AGO

Daniel Chew, an old negro slave claims that he will be ninety-five years of age on his next birthday, the last day of June this year. His home is at Denison, Texas. He stopped off here on his way home from Houston, where he had been visiting. While at Houston he saw "Ole Marse Chew's" great grandson, who is a lawyer there.

Deers and Bears Plentiful
When questioned as to his residence in Texas, he said "Marse John Chew" brought himself and about 100 other negro slaves from Holly Springs, Marshall County, Mississippi over to 400 acres of Brazos Bottom land, "Marse Chew" had purchased in Burleson county, long before the civil war. He said he did not know just how long as his memory had begun to fail him now, and he could neither read nor write, yet he could spell his name. The aged negro showed much affection for his old master, and averred that he had always had plenty to eat plenty of clothes to wear and a nice clean place to sleep. He said that when the party first came to Texas, deer and bears were more than just plentiful. He said, "I was going out to the cornfield one day after roasting ears and thar between two rows up ahead of me was a great big b'ar. I run and he run, but I could run faster. I run an' tole 'Ole Marse Chew' and he come and kill dat b'ar. An' dat was a big b'ar. You won't believe it but he weighed 300 pounds."

GOVERNOR NEFF SIGNS "TECH" COLLEGE BILL

AUSTIN, Texas, Feb. 12.—The bill establishing the West Texas Technological College, which has passed finally in both branches of the legislature, was signed and approved by Governor Neff late Saturday in the presence of Senator Bledsoe of Lubbock, Representative Chittwood of Sweetwater, authors of the measure; Homer D. Wade of Fort Worth, assistant manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, and newspaper men.

Bill Now a Law

The bill having passed in the legislature by the necessary two-thirds vote and carrying the emergency clause, became effective immediately after being signed by the governor. Under the provisions of this act, $1,000,000 is appropriated for the establishment of the college, as follows: During 1923, $150,000 for purchasing 2000 acres of land on which the college is to be situated; during 1924, $500,000 for erection of the college; during 1925, $350,000 for equipment and furnishings. College will be located north of the 29th parallel and west of the ninety-eighth meridian. Its primary purpose will be education along lines of manufacturing cotton, wool, leather and other raw materials, textile engineering and technique of weaving, dyeing and tanning.

Gov. Neff Gets Gold Pen

Six years ago a movement was started for the establishment of a West Texas college by P. C. Coleman of Colorado City. In recognition of his signing the bill, Governor Neff was presented with a gold fountain pen by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. In return the governor presented a pen to that body and to Mr. Coleman. Selection of the site is left to a locating board provided for in the act.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ROCKDALE MAKES GREAT TREE PLANTING RECORD

ROCKDALE, Feb. 12.—R. C. (Clay) Allen, chairman of the civic development committee of the Chamber of Commerce, reports that more than 200 trees have been planted this month under the rules laid down by the organization, the trees to be furnished by the civic committee. The trees are being taken up and collected for distribution. A number will be donated to the public schools and the boys and girls will be organized into "Arbor Day" bands, each group to care for one tree. Water will be furnished by the city if necessary for irrigation the first year after transplantation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE

Sunday school attendance in Bryan on Sunday, February 11th, was as follows: First Baptist, 327; Methodist, 218; Presbyterian, 165; Christian, 47; Episcopal, 41; Free, Baptist, 36; Total attendance, 774.

MR. SBISA MOVES TO BRYAN

B. Sbisa, who has for the past forty years made his home on the A. & M. Campus and been connected with the subsistence department of the College, has moved to Bryan and has an apartment at the Mattie Webb home on East 26th street.

The charred body of "Aunt Caroline Shaw," aged negress, was found on the fireplace hearth of the ruins of her home last night after a lengthy search following the conflagration that consumed her home on the Hearne Road. Her home which was a two-story frame house, with additions, to the value of around $1,000, was totally destroyed, though it is thought that her death preceded the fire rather than that she was a victim of it.

OUTSIDE CITY LIMITS

The fire had gained a great headway, the house being almost entirely consumed before anyone arrived on the scene. Owing to the fact that the home is located about 400 yards from the city limits, out of the telephone district and too far for water to be thrown from the city mains, no one, it seemed had noticed or paid any attention to the matter. The alarm was sounded shortly after 10 o'clock by Harold D. Cuykendall, city editor on the Bryan Daily Eagle, who with his wife, noticed a dull heavy glow in the sky, as they were crossing the street from a local theatre. He summoned Mr. Fairman, who was standing on the sidewalk talking to some men and made inquiry as to where the fire was. That was the first intimation people had as to there being a fire. This started a stream of cars and people northwestward to the point of the glow in the sky.

SEARCH FOR THE BODY

W. S. Martin, chief-of-police, caught a car going to the scene and arrived about the time that most of the small crowd of twenty or thirty did. The first one to arrive was the son of the negress, Jerry Shaw, who lives across the road. Jerry approached Mr. Martin who inquired as to the whereabouts of "Aunt Caroline," whom he knew, lived in the home. The negro son remarked that he thought she had lost her life in the fire. When the flames had somewhat subsided, a rope and hoe were procured and the bed in which she usually slept was dragged from out the ruins but the body was not in it. Then the men began poking around in the debris and, noticing a bulk near the remains of the fireplace, Mr. Martin directed investigations to that point where a charred body was found huddled up at one side of the hearth. Only the trunk of the body was first located protruding portions of the body having been burned away.

DEATH PRECEDED FIRE

It is thought that the death of the negress preceded the burning of her home. According to local surmises, the negress was sitting in front of the fireplace, and a little to one side; that she fell over dead, her head falling close to the flames, as was indicated by the position of the body and the fact that the portion of the body was one of the parts burned away. Either her hair or her clothing must have caught fire and thence it spread to the house proper. Either in this manner, or else due to sleeping on the hearth, must have started the blaze. The body of the negress, who was well over 80 years of age, was collected and taken to the home of the son across the road.

THREE OF FOREIGNERS GIVEN CITIZENSHIP BY DISTRICT COURT

Sheriff L. E. Morehead brought Henry Welch before Judge W. C. Davis this morning in Juvenile Court. The judge sent him home with orders to appear in court next Monday. The boy is charged with burglary, having, it is said, broken into the Moehlan butcher shop some time ago by cutting a hole in the screen, and taking some pennies, all the cash that had been left from the cash drawer. He was caught in the place of business by Robert Kellner of Ed R. Emmel's drug store.

Three of the eleven applicants for final naturalization papers were granted citizenship Tuesday in District Court by Judge W. C. Davis, after being examined by H. M. Anthony, federal naturalization examiner of Houston. They are: Bernard Sbisa, Frank Andrew Yeager, Joseph Paradowski. The others were refused on educational requirements, of whom one could not even talk English fluently enough to make himself understood.

COUNTY SURVEYOR JONES IS BUSY MAKING MAPS

A map of Common School District No. 8, known as the Steep Hollow school, is being prepared by County Surveyor H. O. Jones. He has just finished a road map of the county to fill local demand for same. It shows, besides the different roads, school and original land grants, etc.

New Committee Appointed.

Be it resolved that the committee appointed by the president of the Brazos County Bar Association for the purpose of conferring with a committee from Robertson county with a view of having jurisdiction of the county courts of said counties restored, be authorized to advocate the establishment of the office of District Attorney for the 85th Judicial District of Texas, provided that in the event the immediate establishment of said office does not meet with the approval of the County Attorneys of said counties, the bill establishing same shall provide said office be established to take effect from and after January 1, 1925. A motion that the president appoint a committee of three to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Honorable T. R. Batte and set a date for memorial service was carried, and J. H. Ranson and J. G. Minkert were appointed. Upon a motion of Judge Davis, the president of the Bar Association, Robert Armstrong was added to this committee. F. L. Henderson, W. S. ### HIGH WIND BLOWS BITTER COLD OUT ALASKA AND CANADA'S NORTHWEST

What Is Said to be Severest Storm of Winter is Scheduled to Reach Texas Tonight and Send the Mercury Downward With Alarming Rapidity—Snow and High Winds Accompany Cold.

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Ill., Feb. 14.—The severest cold wave of the winter, coming from Alaska and the regions of Northwest Canada, still constantly increasing in intensity, is sweeping over the upper Mississippi Valley and down across the plains states. A drop of twenty or more degrees of temperature is predicted for west and east Texas tonight while Louisiana will also feel the force of the storm by lowered temperature. The storm, it is said, if continuing to move southward and eastward with its present velocity, is due to strike the Texas panhandle tonight and spread over the state.

NINETY-MILE-AN-HOUR GALE SWEEPING CALIFORNIA.

Heavy snow is falling throughout the upper Mississippi Valley region as the forerunner of sub-zero weather. It is being accompanied and followed by a high wind that has attained an even greater velocity in the western states. Schools were closed in Montana due to inability to heat the buildings in the intense cold. Wires were blown down and cities without electric lights. Plate glass windows were blown in. In California the wind is reported to have reached a ninety-mile-an-hour gale, blowing wires down and doing other damage, without however, taking lives. Movement of trains facing the wind is considerably hampered and are unable to meet their time schedules.

MISS VIVIENE HOWELL BRYAN GIRL CHOSEN IN TEX. BEAUTY CONTEST

As the beauty promenade passed in review of all W. A. A. members at the mass meeting which was held last night in the Woman's Gym, Miss Evelyn Abshear, of Austin, Miss Vivienne Howell, of Bryan, and Miss Corita Davis of San Marcos were chosen as the Athletic Association's representation in the 1923 Cactus Beauty Contest.

Nominees Parade

An improvised stage was arranged across one end of the gymnasium, and the eight nominees modeled in style show fashion. In order to gain a more positive effect of the photographic possibilities of the contestants, each wore evening attire. Numbers were attached to the "beauties" and the final vote was cast by the unanimous approval of the most pleasing three. It has been the policy of the Texas physical training staff to support the ideal that an athletic girl can be as attractive on the court or field as she can upon the ball room floor. The enthusiasm with which the girl athletes conducted the beauty selection was indicative of sportsmanship ability to "know a good thing when they saw it."

Much Applause Given

Each nominee was greeted with applause as she promenaded before her judges. The three winners will enter the Bluebonnet Belles Contest by the mutual consent of more than one hundred members of W. A. A. The selection was diplomatic; and from an artistic standpoint it was based primarily upon the individual's ability to be successfully photographed. According to members of the physical training staff, the selection and its outcome was entirely satisfactory to all.—The Texan of State University.

It is hoped that a wider interest in the work of this organization may be created, and that the united efforts of all the citizens may be centered in making the affairs of the association successful. No more worthy work can be done than to beautify our "Silent City," and by making it our care, show again our appreciation of our loved ones who are sleeping there. Mrs. John E. Astin, Mrs. Edgar Covey, Mrs. Dona Carnes and Mrs. M. W. Sims, constitute the program committee for the annual open meeting on Thursday. They announce the following: Open prayer, Rev. W. N. ### ROUNTREE ON DUTY.

Editor Lee J. Rountree of the Bryan Eagle is again on record as doing something good for his state. The bill by Representative Rountree to appropriate $600,000 for a topographic survey and stream measurement of the Brazos, Colorado, Rio Grande, Trinity and other rivers of Texas for the purpose of forming districts for impounding dams, irrigation districts and aiding levee and reclamation projects passed the house 65 to 52 and goes to the senate. This bill, according to its sponsors, is intended to lay the foundation for conservation of waters in north and west Texas and flood control in east and south Texas. The survey will be carried out by the board of water engineers and the state reclamation engineers. Publishers' Auxiliary.

Advertising is an investment, the cost of which is in the same proportion to its return as seeds are to the harvest. And it is just as preposterous for you to consider public as an expense, as it would be for a farmer to hesitate over purchasing a fertilizer, if he discovered that he could profitably increase his crops by employing it.—Groesbeck Journal.

Mrs. Edith Wilms, of Dallas, and the only woman in the Texas legislature, declares that she is already weary of her work at Austin and is ready to quite the law-making body. Success is a long unbroken road of toil and labor and Mrs. Wilms finds that the grind is too heavy and the penalty is too great for her to remain in the service.

The Bryan Eagle is the real advertising medium for Bryan and Brazos county and deserves consideration in preference to schemes that bring no benefit to the community.

Copious rains have practically broken the drouth throughout Texas and farming operations are in full blast in all sections.

DEATH OF LITTLE CHILD

Little Doris Louise, thirteen-day old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ayers of College, died Saturday morning at 2 o'clock after a three days' illness of pneumonia. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. John Rawls at the home on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, interment in the Booneville cemetery. The Eagle joins with the other many friends in extending sympathy and condolence to the bereaved parents. May they find peace with Him who said: "Suffer little children to come unto me."

RURAL TRUSTEES ARE ADDRESSED BY COUNTY SUPT. D. J. McDONALD

The Brazos County Rural Trustees Association met Saturday, 2 o'clock at the court house, with President S. P. Moore, presiding and eight districts represented. County Superintendent D. J. McDonald, addressed the meeting and gave his plans for the future welfare of the rural schools, which was very interesting and helpful. After which the meeting went into a round table discussion of the many subjects of vital interest to the rural schools and every one present were unanimously in favor of continuing the meetings until every school district is represented. Brother trustees let me appeal to you in behalf of all those children you have been elected to represent and whose educational advantages are to a great extent in your hands, come to our meetings and bring your problems. Let's us all co-operate together and use all our talents that God has given us to make our rural schools the very best possible. Don't forget the date February 24th, at 2 o'clock at the court house.

J. M. COOK, Secretary.

(A. D. Jackson, secretary Brazos River Reclamation Association).

This photograph of Governor Neff signing the Rountree Reclamation Bill, January 31, 1923, marks a milestone in the development of Texas and is destined to become an historic picture. Present at the signing was the author, Honorable Lee J. Rountree, representative from Brazos county, and the joint author, Senator Holbrook of Galveston, and a number of the enthusiastic supporters of the measure in both Houses of the Legislature. There were also present several leading citizens who have taken active part in the crystallization of sentiment that made the law possible. Among these were Honorable Leonard Tillotson, president, and Homer D. Wade, secretary of the Texas Reclamation Association; A. D. Jackson, secretary of the Brazos River Reclamation Association, and Judge John W. Gaines, of the Colorado River Association.

It is expected that the surveys made possible by the $600,000 appropriation carried in the law will enable the State's engineers to advise accurately as to the cost and character of the engineering feats necessary to harness the streams of Texas to provide irrigation water, hydro-electric power, flood protection, drainage, and other benefits necessary to bring into safe cultivation several million acres of land not now safely tilable. It is thought that these surveys will show that valuable lands may derive the need.

Until the surveys are finished, no accurate estimate is available as to the cost per acre for this protection, but there are those who venture the opinion that many of these projects can be accomplished at a cost not exceeding $10 per acre for the land involved. There are others who state freely that owing to the extreme fertility of the lands in question, the project would be profitable even though the cost should be found several times $10 per acre.

According to the engineers the estimates in framing the law, usable data will be forthcoming on practically every project in the State within two years from September 1, 1923, when the appropriation becomes available. It is expected that each stream system will be shown by the engineers to comprise a separate natural and more or less inseparable project.

SHEPPARD-TOWNER LAW PASSES THE LEGISLATURE

(Mrs. John C. Granbery in New Citizen, Georgetown).

The status of the Maternity and Infancy Act in the Legislature stands thus upon adjournment of both Houses for the purpose of visiting the Rio Grande Valley: The Bill has been reported out of Committee favorably in both the House and Senate. No further action has been taken by the Senate, though the measure will come up in the Senate during the coming week. Its passage by that body is assured. Twenty-four of the Senators have pledged themselves to vote for it, though the Lieutenant Governor T. W. Davidson, is strongly opposed.

In the House the Bill has passed to engrossment. This ordinarily means that upon the third reading the bill will be passed. Since the vote was so heavy in favor it is possible that the only record vote taken will be this one on engrossment. It may pass finally by viva voce vote. For this reason the vote is herewith printed as it appears in the House Journal:

FORMER BRYAN RECTO. TO NEW YORK CHURCH

Friends in Bryan have received information that Rev. Randolph Ray of Dallas, has been called as rector of the Church of Transfiguration, known as "The Little Church Around the Corner," in New York City, and has accepted the call. He will leave with his family for New York to enter his new field of labor, shortly after Easter. Rev. Ray was for a number of years, rector of St. Andrews' Episcopal church of this city, and during his residence here made many warm friends, not only among his own parishioners, but with all the people of the city, regardless of church or creed, or position in life, as he was the helpful friend of all. These friends are glad to note the distinguished recognition that has come of his ability as a minister, as the church to which he has been called is considered one of the highest honors in Episcopal churchdom. Since leaving Bryan Rev. Ray has been Dean of St. Matthews Cathedral, at Dallas.

Do you know that you owe something to the town or community in which you live? Did you ever stop to think how worthless your property would be, or how expensive it would be for you to live and educate your children were it not for the other people who live around you? Your neighbors owe you something and you owe them something. If you expect to be a good citizen you must help build roads, schools, churches, etc. You cannot be a good citizen without this. It is a debt you owe just as much as you owe your grocery bill. In fact we would rather beat our grocery man than to cheat the whole community out of what is justly due it. We have no right to sit tight and enjoy the financial benefits and conveniences of good roads, good streets, sidewalks, good schools, good churches, etc. We owe the people who build them our prorate part of the cost and if we don't pay it, we are just as guilty of cheating as if we refused to pay our grocery or market bill. Think it over.—Florence Vidette.

A man drawn for jury service who wiggles out by pleading business or who otherwise evades such service should keep his mouth shut when juries turn guilty men loose. He should not condemn peace officers for lack of vigilance in law enforcement; he himself was guilty of refusing to do his duty. The young man subject to military duty may not evade his country's call when an army is needed in its defense; neither may the private citizen lightly evade draft which calls him to jury service in times of peace. A draft evader is a draft evader, whether the call comes from peace officers or the land or from military officers charged with raising an army in times of war.—Alpine Avalanche.

If the members of the Texas Legislature read over and study every bill that has been or will be introduced, and attend the meetings of the committees of which they are members, and stick to the job during the daily legislative session, they will return home with tired bodies and weary minds, but a clear conscience.—Corrigan Sun.

NEARLY AN INCH RAIN FELL TWENTY FOUR HOURS

Almost an inch of rain, .92 inches to be exact, fell in Bryan and vicinity during the twenty-four hours from 8:00 o'clock Friday morning to the same hour Saturday morning. Only .04 of this could be included in yesterday's precipitation as .88 of the total fell during the night and early morning hours. This is quite a heavy rainfall for such a short space of time and, for the most part, it fell rather lightly and soaked well into the already wet earth. It rained quite hard this morning and was showering intermittently up to press time this afternoon.

EDITORS MAKE MISTAKES

We made a mistake in one issue of the paper, admits an exchange. A good subscriber told us about it. The same day there was a letter in our postoffice box that didn't belong to us. We called for 98 over the phone and got 192. We asked for a spool of No. 50 thread and when we got home we found it was No. 60. The train was reported 30 minutes late. We arrived at the depot 20 minutes late after the train had gone. We got our milk bill and there was a mistake of 10 cents in our favor. We felt sick and the doctor said we were eating too much meat. We hadn't tasted meat for two months. The garage man said the jitney was missing because it needed a new timer. We cleaned a spark plug and it's run fine ever since. Yes, we made a mistake in last week's issue of the paper, and so do others.—Exchange.

DO GOOD ACTS FOR E'IL

You are an unactual person if you have never done a thing of which you are ashamed. You may not wish to have your record revealed before the curious gaze of the world, and you probably persistently try to forget, but there are deeds registered against you which you would give all you possess to blot out and erase from the scarred wall of memory. You might have stopped before you committed these acts. Now you cannot help them. You are at present earnestly striving to balance the scales on the other side, but, like Banquo's ghost, dark deeds and misconduct in your past, rise to greet you on many occasions. You will never be able to get away from the memory of them. If you have no regrets for the unsavory things you have done in the past, you present a most pitiable spectacle, both to God and man. If that conscience of yours is so hardened that the evil of which you are guilty has not left a scar, you are in a serious and degraded stage. Most of us need to do a lot of good and wholesome helpful and charitable things to make up for the misdeeds against us. There should be several good acts to make up for every bad act and even then you cannot stop the influence of just one bad act, nor can you imagine how far the effect of your one misdeed may reach. Are you serving along this line?—Mexican Evening News.

One half the present session of the Texas Legislature has passed and the revenue measures are now before the House. The appropriation bill will not come up at the regular session and Governor Neff will call a special session for appropriations when the revenue bills are passed. At least this is the view at Austin.

TWO ITALIANS UNDER ARREST—LIQUOR CASE

Willie Cantavespi and Charley Salvato were released this morning on $500 bond after having been arrested about nine o'clock by Sheriff L. E. Morehead, Chief of Police W. S. Martin and Officer J. D. Conlee, on a charge of possession and sale of intoxicating liquor; according to County Attorney Oak McKenzie. Acting with authority of a search warrant and on information tending to the effect that liquor was to be found around the Cantavespi store near the I. & G. N. depot, the above-named officers entered the place this morning for the purpose of searching, according to W. S. Martin, police chief. Mr. Martin said that while the sheriff was reading the search warrant, in compliance with the law, he and Officer Conlee walked toward the rear of the store and came upon Willie Cantavespi and Charley Salvato filling bottles of whiskey. They were immediately placed under arrest and the liquor confiscated. Their bondsmen were: M. G. Nall, M. E. Wallace, P. A. Tardy, A. J. Buchanan, J. A. McQueen and M. B. Parker.

AUTO NUTS.

Here rests our friend poor Freddie Blake; He stepped on the gas instead of the brake. Here rests a boob named Billy Farr. The train was faster than his car. Here sleeps a Hick named Silas Hatch. To look at the gas he struck a match. Here sleeps dear Johnnie and his Queen. Held her in his lap driving a machine. Here lies the prize boob of them all. Tanked up on home brew and drove into a wall.—Exchange.

We believe that laziness can be held as responsible for 90 per cent of the crime and cussedness going on in the world. Once in a while some good, honest hard-working fellow in the heat of sudden passion will commit murder or some less crime but invariably a research into the criminal's past life will reveal the fact that his disposition has been one of aversion to work. At the outset that was his fault, but it is a grave one to youth, one which is also bound to lead to disaster unless overcome and eradicated from his system, and implanted there instead a wholesome desire to pursue some useful task each day, especially during the period when his character is moulding. It is very easy for those in idleness to drift into the performing of misdeeds, and after the first misstep continuation is easy and swift. The fellow who keeps busy abhors crime and shuns its evil influence because the importance and love of his work have stored his mind with higher and nobler aspirations, and his busy occupation has taught him that a spotless character is the biggest and grandest asset he can possibly acquire in life.—Elgin Courier.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TO DECIDE FATE OF THE TICK ERADICATION IN THE COUNTY

The county commissioners at their meeting next Monday will decide as to the future of tick eradication work in Brazos county, as to whether or not it is to be continued, according to E. R. Smith, federal tick eradicator for Brazos county. The Tick Eradicator is a federal agent and paid by the government. If the tick eradication work in this county is eliminated, he will then be sent to some other place to carry on the work. Nothing is known as to the attitude of the commissioners on this subject but a number of stockmen, it is said, feel that the good work done thus far will be totally wasted if the tick eradication is to be given up. Mr. Smith suggests that the stockmen voice their opinion to the commissioners prior to the meeting so that they will know the desires of those who would be interested in this work—its maintenance or elimination.

ONE PER CENT ESTIMATE CATTLE LOSS IN BRAZOS COUNTY DURING FREEZE

R. E. Smith, federal tick eradicator for Brazos county, stated today that, while he had not yet heard definitely from the Navasota bottoms, he would estimate that not over a hundred head of livestock had been lost in this county during the recent norther. He said that a number of farmers and stockmen had reported the loss of one head by freezing but that no one had reported more than one. He doubted if the figure would equal that sum. A. C. Williamson, who lives east of Bryan, near Coleview, estimates the loss in the county at around one per cent. No doubt either way of estimating the loss is not far from correct, or as nearly so as one could determine.

LONG-TIME RESIDENT OF BRAZOS COUNTY IS BURIED HARVEY TODAY

The funeral services for Mrs. G. W. Graham, who died Wednesday evening at about six o'clock, at the home of her son, Floyd Todd, in Harvey community, were held this afternoon at three o'clock at the residence, conducted by Rev. J. J. Tatum. The body was laid to rest in the Bright Light Cemetery of the Harvey Free Baptist church.

Mrs. Graham was seventy-eight years of age. She was born and married in Mississippi but has been a resident of Brazos county for the past forty years and all but one of them spent in the Harvey community. She was a charter member of the Free Baptist church at Harvey. Her husband preceded her in death by about ten years, he having died at Harvey also. To the union were born seven children, two of whom survive her, Mrs. Floyd Todd of Harvey and Mrs. J. A. Capps of Uvalde avenue, Bryan. Mrs. Graham is of a prominent Brazos county family and during her long residence here had acquired a large circle of friends who mourn her demise. Among those who attended the funeral from Bryan were: J. A. Capps and family and Howard Todd.

JANUARY TAXES COLLECTED CLASSIFIED ACCORDING TO BOTH STATE AND COUNTY

The total amount of all taxes collected in the month of January amounted to the sum of $142,769.32, according to Roy Hudspeth, county tax collector, who gave the following figures out this morning. State Tax: ad valorem, School and Confederate Veterans' Pensions, $49,566.16; State Poll Tax—$3,697.50; Co. Tax: ad valorem, roads, schools, etc., $46,257.84; Road District No. 1, $20,861.92; Road District No. 2, $2,895.42; District Schools, $11,387.10; County Poll Taxes, $616.25; Levee District No. 1, $3,355.64; This making a total of $138,637.85. The difference between this last total and the total moneys first-mentioned, $4,131.47, represents the taxes collected on automobiles and on redemption taxes. Mr. Hudspeth has his mid-month report ready for the mails, being several days in advance of the required schedule.

RESIDENT OF BRYAN OF EIGHTIES ASKS ABOUT HIS FRIENDS OF THAT PERIOD

Dr. O. O. Gobin of Dallas, formerly a resident of this city but who left Bryan somewhere along in the eighties, passed through here yesterday with his family, enroute to Giddings on a business trip. He stopped over in Bryan for lunch and remained for a short time to make inquiries as to his friends of a former day. Dr. Gobin will be kindly recalled by many of the old-time residents here who knew him long, long years ago.

Mrs. M. W. Sims and Mrs. Maggie W. Barry returned Thursday afternoon from Austin, where they had been to attend a meeting of the executive board of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs and the Educational Week program sponsored by the club women of the state. While Mrs. Sims was in Austin she made a personal visit to Governor Pat M. Neff and her own Brazos county representative, Lee J. Rountree, and gave her approval of the constructive work they are doing for Texas in putting into a law the Reclamation Bill, which carries an appropriation of $600,000 for a topographic and hydrographic survey of the Texas Rivers. Mrs. Sims thinks this bill is only a beginning in the conservation work for conservation work for Texas, which will ultimately stop the staggering tolls that have been taken by floods the past few years.

It will be an informal affair and any sorority woman interested should phone Miss Della Lawrence.

BRYAN CEMETERY ASS'N. IN REGULAR SESSION THURSDAY MORNING

The directors of the Bryan Cemetery association held their regular meeting Thursday morning at 10 o'clock with the president, George A. Adams, presiding and the following present: Fred L. Cavitt, S. E. Eberstadt, E. E. McAdams, Mrs. John E. Astin, Mrs. Dora Carnes, Mrs. Edgar Covey, Mrs. Albert Buchanan.

Membership Report.
Report of the membership committee was made, but the work not being yet complete, the campaign will continue until those in charge have had opportunity to see all Bryan people who are interested in this work, and to hear from all out of town owners of lots in the Bryan cemetery. To date, the committee has the names of only about 400 members, where there should be 1,000 names on the list. It is the wish of the committee, that any whom the solicitors fail to see, telephone Mrs. Astin or Mrs. Covey and have their names added to this list of men and women who stand for the beautification and up-keep of Bryan's "Silent City". When the membership list is complete, the names will be published in the local newspaper. Upon motion of Mrs. J. E. Astin, it was ordered that the Bryan Cemetery association be incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas and the association president, George A. Adams was instructed to take all necessary legal steps to put the order into effect.

Fred L. Cavitt, treasurer made report of the finances of the association as follows: Balance last report, $77.84; Receipts, available fund $70.00; disbursements, none. Balance available fund, Feb. 8, 1923, $147.84. Maintenance fund balance last report, $132.43; receipts $108.85; disbursements, $23.00; balance February 8, 1923, $218.28. Total cash on hand, $366.12.

Annual Meeting Session.
Another business meeting of the directors will be held on Thursday morning, Feb. 15th, at 10 o'clock, at the City National Bank to hear the final report of the membership committee, and to receive plans and outlines from F. Hensel, landscape architect of A. and M. College who is preparing the general plans for the beautification of the Bryan Cemetery grounds. The annual meeting of the association will be held on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the auditorium at Carnegie Library, at which time a full report of the year's work will be given by officers of the association, and plans for the future will be given in detail. It is the hope of the directors that the public generally will attend this meeting in great numbers. The Bryan Cemetery association is composed of the people and the people should feel a personal interest in all affairs pertaining to it. A program committee was appointed by the association president, George A. Adams, to arrange a suitable program for the annual meeting. The committee is composed of Mrs. J. E. Astin, Mrs. Dora Carnes, Mrs. Edgar Covey and Mrs. M. W. Sims.

THREE-WHEELED FORD IS STANDING, STREET CORNER

A Ford, minus one wheel, right rear, is standing on the corner of 26th street and Washington avenue, in front of the courthouse, wrecked Sunday when the rear axle broke in the hub of the wheel and let this corner of the car down on the pavement. The license number on the car is 59,138 but no one in that section had knowledge as to the ownership of the car. It is thought that the axle was broken by a too sudden and too forcibly jamming on of the brakes, which often results in this manner when the car has a worn axle.

AGRICULTURAL WORKER GUEST OF BRAZOS COUNTY

County Agent C. L. Beason, C. L. Chambers of Washington, D. C., field representative of the club work in the United States, R. W. ## DEATH OF MRS. M. DUNN WELL KNOWN IN BRYAN

Mrs. Nona Goodson, lovingly known as "Grandma Goodson" has received the sad news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Dunn, of Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Dunn and grandchildren, T. E. and Mae Clifton, have often visited in Bryan and have many friends here, who with the relatives mourn her loss and extend sympathy and condolence to them in their hour of sorrow. The Memphis Commercial Appeal in giving an account of the death has the following to say: "Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Dunn, 98, said to be the oldest of the three surviving charter members of the Central Baptist church, died Thursday morning at 8:15 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Clifton, death being largely due to the infirmities of old age. A resident of this city for over 80 years, Mrs. Dunn, whose husband, Bernard Dunn, was a well known citizen during the early years of this city, and was engaged in the hardware business, had seen the development of Memphis from a country village to its present status. She never tired of telling of the interesting times she had lived through as a resident of Memphis from the time she came here as a young woman. These incidents included the days of the civil war and troublous times of the yellow fever days."

DENTON, Texas, Feb. 10.—Ten students at the College of Industrial Arts have been named members of an honorary basketball team selected from the personnel which made up the class teams in the recent series of games. These students, coaches point out, would in all probability have composed the regular varsity team for 1923 had the College not abandoned intercollegiate competition.

TEXAS SAM CLUB WAS DULY LAUNCHED AT UNIVERSITY BANQUET

(Austin American).

Officers of state, legislators, Texas newspaper editors, citizens of Austin, faculty and students of the University—in all between 350 and 400—formed the group of merry banqueters who were guests of the University and the Austin Chamber of Commerce Friday night in a dinner given at the University Commons. The banquet hall was a pretty scene, as the large cafeteria which serves the needs of the University student body was transformed for the evening into a veritable bower of orange and indigo colored balloons and orange and white festoons banked with ferns and pot plants. Ornate candelabra served as a centerpiece for the main table and single candlesticks for the smaller tables.

It was a happy bunch that gathered there for the choice "eats" after a day's work on the part of the legislators and state officials and after an afternoon's ride over the city by the visiting newspapermen. Although no speeches were billed on the program, one or two of the editors became so enthusiastic over it that they had to give verbal expression to their enjoyment.

By request Lee J. Rountree, member of the legislature and editor of the Bryan Daily Eagle, was the first to divert from the regular program when he introduced the "Texas Sam Club", made up of newspapermen present whose first name is Sam. This unique club includes such men as Sam P. Harben of the Richardson Echo, Sam Braswell of Clarendon and Sam D. Chestnut of Kenedy, all officers of the Texas Press Association. Sam Miller, Sam Holloway, Sam Roberts, Sam Hoyle and Sam Fore. Then followed Henry Edwards of the Troup Banner, the editor from East Texas who was introduced as "Sam Hill" and who was humorously accused by some of his associates of bringing his own favorite brand of ribbon cane syrup to Austin to go with his batter cakes, in a rather lengthy oration on the beauties of Austin, the University and of everything he saw during the afternoon.

Seated at the center table as special guests for the affair were Governor Pat M. Neff, Dean Will H. Mayes of the University School of Journalism, Dr. Robert E. Vinson, Secretary Walter E. Long of the Chamber of Commerce, President S. D. Chestnut and Secretary Sam P. Harben of the Texas Press Association.

When the big crowd of visitors arrived at the University campus shortly before 7 o'clock, they were welcomed in a concert given by the Longhorn Band of the University of Texas which executed the famous T formation in their honor. During the open air concert the band played such popular numbers as "Quality Plus March", "Faust", "Tomorrow", and "When Old Texas Comes Swinging Along." The latter number being the famous singing music number of the University.

Following the concert the crowd sojourned to the University Commons where daintily attired maids who looked picturesque in their white dresses and orange cardboard neck bands, checked in their hats and overcoats, directed them to tables and then served them with a menu fit for kings. The menu included hot oyster cocktail, roast turkey, potatoes in half shell, buttered peas, spiced apples, rolls, salted nuts, lettuce with Thousand Island dressing, apricot cream, fruit cake and coffee.

Texas Editors Victims.

Within a few minutes after the guests had been seated, everybody was surprised when newsboys rushed into the room "crying, extra", and each person was furnished a copy of the Daily Texan in miniature containing the program menu and a number of gags and stories on well-known members of the press, including Jim Lowry of Honey Grove Representative Will C. Edwards of Denton, Representative Lee J. Rountree of Bryan, Will H. Mayes of the University School of Journalism, DeWitt Lamb of Mexia, Henry C. Edwards of the Troup Banner and Sam P. Harben of Richardson. The publication was attractively made up in four columns, patterned after "The Tiny Texan," the annual banquet favor of the Texas staff and was printed at the University Journalism school.

Then began the program of stunts that kept the crowd in good humor all evening. First number on the program was "The Press and Legislature Minuet," a dance arranged and given by eight University girls under the direction of Miss Susie Fisher, dancing instructor at the University. The colonial dames garbed in gowns made of newspaper and their partners, wearing the black gowns and white wigs of legislators were Hester Anderson, Esther Wilson, Anne Marshall, Thelma Hardie, Frances Graham, Anna Van Ness, Alice Dominguez and Rosalie Biggio.

In a clever singing skit entitled: "Mr. Longhorn and Mr. Green" which was a parody of the song "Mr. Gallagher and Mr. Sheen" Ben Woodhead representing Mr. Green, the freshman, learned all about Paderewski, "the Russian baritone," the shacks, and other problems that the legislators and members of the press contend with. This number made a big hit and the tall Texas cowboy attired in his chaps and orange-colored shirt and the little freshman with the green colored "dome piece" had to respond to several encores.

The University Glee Club under the direction of Lester C. Brenier sang three numbers, including Bulard's "Winter Song" and "Morning" by Olek Speaks. The members of the Woman's Athletic Association then sang, "Over Fields in Waving Golden," after which the University

TABOR WINS DISTRICT HIGH SCHOOL BASKET BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The boys basketball team of Tabor High school are the winners of the District High school basketball championship, by virtue of having on Friday eliminated all contesting teams. The District Conference was made up of seven counties as follows: Brazos, Burleson, Austin, Washington, Grimes, Madison and Robertson. Each county had several contesting teams and games were played within each county to eliminate the weaker aggregations and leave its one top-notch team for the district competitor. These teams were to meet on Friday morning, February 9 at 10 o'clock at the College gym to decide the championship. For some reason four of the seven county teams did not arrive and by the rules regulating the contests, they thus forfeited their rights to the honors.

Three Games in Five Hours.
The first game was the last elimination game for Brazos county, it having narrowed to a contest between the boys' teams of Bryan and Tabor High schools. Tabor won this game by the score of 17 to 10. This left three county winners: Tabor for Brazos; Navasota for Grimes and Belleville for Austin to compete for the district honors. In the first game, Tabor defeated Navasota, 18 to 10; in the second won from Belleville, 30 to 10, increasing the margin by which they won in each consecutive game, despite the fact that the same team personnel played each full game and that all three games were played within five hours of time. A peculiar thing about the scores is that each contesting team registered the same score against Tabor, each tallying up 10 points.

History of Tabor Teams.
The Tabor team was composed of the following high school students: Sherman Walker, forward; Sam Walker (a cousin), forward; Jim Huggins, center; Freddie Locke and Tom Ayres, guards. Substitutes present if their services were required, which they were not, were: Jim Edge, Rob Batten, Herman Blanton; Charlton Cooper and Joe Bailey Walker. The coach for the team is the principal of the Tabor High school, G. M. Ammons. He has established an enviable record in basketball work, as well as in the teaching profession, since he went to Tabor three years ago. In 1920-21 Tabor played 12 games and lost only two and these were merely practice games and did not count in the elimination contests. Tabor won the district honors this year. In 1921-22 Tabor lost but one game but that was to Bryan who was the other winner of the county elimination contests, which gave Bryan the county victory this year. During the season just closed Tabor played 21 games and lost but one, that to Harvey. Having won one game and lost one game to Harvey, a third game had to be played to settle the matter, Tabor taking the "rubber." A peculiar feature of the record made is that none of this year's team members played in 1920-21 but two of them were last year's letter men, three being new material worked up this year.

Tabor school is to be complimented for the splendid record made and Tabor community for the backing they give to the school and its athletics.

Glee Club and the entire assemblage sang "The Eyes of Texas" and the pleasant affair had come to a close. Between the banquet courses music was furnished by the University Mandolin Club, which played "Rio Nights," "Chinese Honeymoon," "Tomorrow" and "Carolina in the Morning."

Another stunt on the program that created considerable merriment was the playlet "Affairs of State" arranged by Mrs. R. H. Griffith. This was a take-off on Governor Neff, the state press, the legislature, Dr. R. E. Vinson, the student body and on the man of affairs and was presented by students of the school of Journalism. The personae dramatized included Deskins Wells, T. H. McNeal, Nathe Bagby, Harold Young, P. E. Foreman and S. M. Pool.

During the afternoon the guests were shown over "the forty acres" by the Texas cowboys and a committee of students from the school of Journalism. The latter committee included Clyde Watkins, chairman, Fairfax Nisbet, Harriet Barlickman, Edwin Duer, Moran Durlap, David Keller, and Hal Bourland.

All in all, the visiting members of the press had a big time Friday and an invitation has already been extended to the Texas Press Association to come to Austin for the 1924 convention.

COUNTY FARM AGENT C. L. BEASON MAKES REPORT YEAR'S WORK

The following summary, or report of work, has been submitted for publication by County Farm Agent C. L. Beason. Attention of the public is respectfully called to the amount of work done by Mr. Beason as shown in the splendid report rendered. The quality of the work done can best be attested by the words of praise from those for whom he has performed services and from among the personnel of the boys clubs he has formed throughout the county. Everyone with whom Mr. Beason comes in contact has a warm word to speak of him. It is believed that the report submitted cannot be surpassed by any county farm agent in the state.

Credit For Assistance.
"The report herewith submitted by no means shows that the goal which was set has been reached, or even nearly approached, but it is with pardonable pride that we point to the progress made, not only in the betterment of agriculture, but also to those things which are conducive to the spirit of progress and the welfare of the people as a whole. Good will and a ready spirit of co-operation have been manifest on every hand. Everybody has seemed willing to help in whatever would tend to make our people more prosperous and the county a better place in which to live. Too much credit cannot be given, however, to the constant and wise counsel of District Agent A. W. Buchanan and other members of the Extension staff; for the helpful service of S. E. Eberstadt, secretary chamber of commerce, who has a vision of the importance of community organization and who is always "rearing" to go; to the business and professional men of Bryan who have lent encouragement and assistance to community fairs and to club activities; to the teachers and club members of the county for their enthusiastic support at all times; to the various departments of the College, always ready to help; to the Bryan and Brazos County Chamber of Commerce and the Rotary Club for interest in community meetings and the work as a whole; to the Bryan Telephone Co. for use of rural lines; to the Bryan Daily and Weekly Eagle, whose pages have always been wide open for the spread of whatever news might interest the people, better the conditions of farming, or be conducive to the intellectual, moral, social and economic welfare of all the people; to each and all others who by thought, word, or act have contributed in any way toward the betterment of agriculture and the happiness of our people."

TABOR SCHOOL NEWS

There was no school held on last Monday owing to the deep snow on the ground and such a small attendance that it was deemed not worth while to conduct regular classes.

J. L. Cobb, instructor at Room No. 2, Grades 5, 6 and 7, was absent from school all the past week on account of illness. Jim Huggins, Pearl McCallum and Dee Worsham, high school students, took turns at supplying for him.

Walter Armstrong, patron of the school and a county rural school trustee, was a visitor at the school one day this past week.

Mrs. G. M. Ammons, who gave up her room in the Tabor school on account of illness, is still confined to her bed to the regret of her many friends in this community. Her son, Ernest, who had been teaching at Chapel Hill, resigned to accept the position left vacant by his mother.

Herman Blanton was reported quite ill yesterday but is feeling much better today.

On next Friday, February 16, the Tabor school will put on a big program at the school house to which the school children, the patrons and friends of the school are invited. It will be held in the high school room, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The next regular meeting of the Tabor Welfare Club will be held on Friday, February 23, at the school house. The Bryan Rotary Club will put on the entertainment if the invitation extended is accepted. Tabor people look forward to a good attendance.

Misses Myrtle and Elizabeth Mathis spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mathis of Reliance community.

STUDENT VISITOR TO FARM TRAIN PAYS A COMPLIMENT TO A-M.

From Comanche, Texas, comes a very complimentary letter written by John Sullivan, a former pupil of Miss Laura Belle Roten when she was teaching school at Bates City, Texas. It is highly complimentary to Miss Myrtle Murry, poultry specialist, extension department, A. and M. College, and to the College in general. He writes about a visit to the Farm Train run by the S. A. and A. P. Railroad in conjunction with the A. and M. College over the Sap lines of Texas and which passed through Comanche. He said: "Your College sent a poultry car here several days ago. Our agriculture class went down and learned all we could. I have forgotten the names of all the people with it except Miss Myrtle Murry. She made us a good speech and gave us some good information. Oh! I would write all night about this talk—you know how good she can instruct. I want to see the College."

BRYAN WOMAN'S CLUB URGES STATE SENATE RENDER SCHOOLS AID

County School Superintendent D. J. McDonald appeared before the regular meeting of the Bryan Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon, in session at the Carnegie Library Club Rooms and laid the school matter before the women members assembled. He told how two schools of Brazos county had already had to close down on account of having no funds to continue and of the need for financial assistance from the state legislature if other schools are not to close within the next week or so. As the House has already acted on the Melson bill, it was deemed best to center all efforts on the senate and see that they take up the proposition right away instead of postponing it and acting on other matters instead.

Decide To Take Action.
After discussion of the proposition a motion was made by Mrs. P. M. Rayson that a memorandum be sent to the senate along the lines suggested by Mr. McDonald. It was seconded and carried. Mrs. Frank Webb, president of the club prepared a telegram, in lieu of a letter, it being considered more expedient, speedier and more impressive, and it was sent to Austin on Thursday afternoon. The text of the message was as follows:

"We, the undersigned members of the Bryan Woman's Club, request your vote and support in the passage of the emergency school appropriation bill at the earliest possible moment so that our schools will not be required to close for lack of funds. Signed:
